

Upcoming Classes Hosted by The Season

Classes will begin at 7:00 p.m. and cost $10 each

Fee includes 2 people from each wedding

Register for all 4 classes and pay only $30

Registration is required by calling or emailing The Season

706.767.0606 or holly@theseasonevents.com

February 8 – Wedding Planning Basics (Do I Need a Wedding Coordinator?)

- Are you engaged and not sure where to begin? Do you think you would benefit from having a wedding coordinator but aren't sure what exactly she could do for you? Find out where to start, what to expect from each vendor, and how a wedding coordinator might be the right solution for you! Participants will create their own customized planning timeline and learn lots of great planning tips!

February 15 – Wedding Budgets 101

- If you've never planned a wedding before, you may not know how to plan your own budget. Or, do you have a budget but aren't sure how to make your wedding a reality within that budget? This round-table discussion features presentations from experts in the areas of catering, floral, planning, stationery, and photography to help you understand where the money goes and how to make it stretch!

February 22 – The Role of the Groom and His Mother

- After proposing, many grooms aren't sure exactly what they should be doing for the wedding. Other than host the rehearsal dinner, is there something else the groom's family should (or could) do? In this session, participants will hear from recent grooms and mothers and discover what the experts suggest to make your wedding experience a true blending of families. Traditional groom's expenses will also be discussed.

March 1 – Traditional Etiquette for the Modern Bride

- When planning a wedding, etiquette practices suddenly become very important. Learn from an experienced wedding coordinator and an invitation expert to find out how to use etiquette to your advantage and when to bend the rules!